Company Member Policies & Contract

1. Students must not exceed 3 absences throughout the session. Failure to uphold this policy may result in student being dismissed from the company or taken out of choreography.
2. Students must attend all mandatory rehearsals. Students may be taken out of choreography if they are absent.
3. Students will arrive to all classes and rehearsals on time, with their hand done and shoes on before they entire the dance room.
4. Parents and students understand that placement in company levels is determined solely by the faculty. Students progress at different rates, and while we take age and experience into consideration, we group students according to their ability that we have monitored over the year.
5. Behavior that is not conducive to a positive, learning atmosphere (excessive talking, poor attitude, not respecting teacher or other students, coming unprepared to class) will be noted by teacher and discussed with parent.
